Singapore: Safe, Secure and Competitive

Liechtenstein and Singapore form an ideal partnership. Both countries can boast political stability, financial strength, entrepreneurial energy and an investor-friendly legislative environment.

Along with Tokyo and Hong Kong, Singapore has developed into a major Asian financial centre. Its stock market is the largest in South-East Asia, and Singapore is now the world's fourth-largest foreign exchange market and one of the largest offshore wealth management centres in the Asia-Pacific region. This region places no restrictions on foreign exchange transactions or capital movements.

Singapore's financial stability and investor appeal are underscored by its AAA rating and stringent banking laws – yet two more important features that it shares with Liechtenstein.
